WHEREAS, during the 1998 legislative session, Leigh Anne has exceeded all standards with regard to the qualities that are expected of a dedicated and competent legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, when necessary, she has yielded her office space and telephone to many lobbyists. In addition, she has continually reminded Senator McNally of his events, appointments, and schedules; and

WHEREAS, during times of turmoil she has triumphantly demonstrated her cool competence and unshakable aplomb. She braved the 1998 tornado by taking cover under the 3rd floor Conference Room table; and

WHEREAS, eager to learn more about the intricacies and idiosyncrasies of Tennessee state government and to aid in her studies, Leigh Anne brought her many skills to the State Capitol for the 1998 session of the One-Hundredth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Leigh Anne has performed her many responsibilities with extraordinary intelligence and alacrity; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE-HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, That we hereby commend Leigh Anne McDonald for her outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Randy McNally and wish her much success in her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
